So, when you read about the early stages of the church and the term "Ebionite" it has nothing to do with the true church. It's one overall name that the universal church branded all the rebels, all heretics, because it means "poor people" "dumb, poor, ignorant people that left the true church, no longer a part of the universal church.

To reduce and simplify information on Church administration, most handbooks and other instructions have been consolidated into the Church Handbook of Instructions, which consists of two books: Book 1: Stake Presidencies and Bishoprics. This book is similar to the former General Handbook of Instructions. For the most part it includes information that only stake presidencies and bishoprics need.
