"The Haunted": Act I, Scene One Summary. A year later, it is a clear summer day in front of the Mannon house. The shutters are closed and the front door boarded up. Lavinia and Orin are abroad in China. Seth, Amos, and three old townsmen—Abner, Silva, and Mackel—are carousing about. They appear grotesquely as if they are boys out on a forbidden prank.

In The Haunted we've still got plenty of evil ghosts and spine chilling moments, but we've also got quite a bit more character development and romance in the mix. I was particularly happy After the killer cliffhanger we were left with at the end of book 1, I was excited to get back into the creepy life of Riley Williams.
