Anyone who has missed good suspense novels should put Honeymoon on their list straight away. James Patterson has always been fascinated by serial killers, yet he has tended in the past to stick with the boys; in Nora Sinclair, he and Howard Roughan create a classic Black Widow, who kills her suitors and husbands for their wealth.

Honey Moon is particularly special to me because it's so different from Susan Elizabeth Phillips' other books. There's something about this book. It has always been one of my favorites. A great book takes you on an emotional journey. That's exactly what happened. I loved Honey and Eric together.
