Myth is a folklore genre consisting of narratives that play a fundamental role in society, such as foundational tales. The main characters in myths are usually gods, demigods or supernatural humans. Myths are often endorsed by rulers and priests and are closely linked to religion or spirituality. In fact, many societies group their myths, legends and history together, considering myths to be ...

As to the number of pigeon-holes that have been created, Coffield et al. (2004) write that "the sheer number of dichotomies in the literature conveys something of the current conceptual confusion" (p. 136). In their review, they refer to 30 different dichotomous learning styles in the literature 2 (see Table 1).
